UPDATE ON CALIFORNIA HOMEOWNER BILL OF RIGHTS

In an update published this week, the California Mortgage Bankers Association (“CMBA”) reminded us that the California Homeowner’s Bill of Rights has been in hearings in the California legislature. As CMBA points out, this legislation covers several main topics including “...dual tracking in the foreclosure process, accuracy of mortgage/foreclosure documents, servicer single point of contact requirements ..., blight prevention, tenant rights in [the] foreclosure process, [and] attorney general enforcement/special grand jury”.

CMBA’s summary can be found on its general home page at:

www.cmba.com .

For those of you not familiar with the legislation, we strongly recommend that you review this summary. You may want to contact your legislators with your views on this significant and expansive new legislation.

The Lenders Update is published via e-mail as a complimentary service to our friends and clients in the financial industry throughout California and the United States.

Only those persons who have personally requested this newsletter are on our distribution list.
