SPECIAL ISSUE

One of our Alt & Associates friends, Donna Beinfeld of Donnashi Enterprises has kindly sent us the following information and we thought it of value to all of us and are therefore passing along a copy to our readers. We hope you find it helpful.

Fannie-mae is offering a free web training on quality control, what is required and their guidelines. This should clear up a lot of questions the industry is having, and hopefully eliminate the issues many companies have problems with.....

Agency guidelines especially Fannie-mae's have been challenging for all of us. This web training, which is free, may help clear things up for everyone and allow for everything to become a smoother process. You do not have to fill in a seller-servicer number to attend.
